

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The church at Harmony, near Buena Vista, was dedicated last Sunday.

—Sunday was a beautiful day and spring dresses and hats were numerous.

—Communion services were held at the Presbyterian church Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. R. Torrey.

—So far we have been unable to ascertain whether or not Garrard county will have a stock fair this summer. The previous exhibitions were successful in every respect and it seems that all necessary now is for some enterprising citizen to take hold of the matter to insure a good fair this year.

—Mr. John Baughman and family, of Richmond, are visiting at Mr. E. L. Morrow's, Col. W. O. Bradley and Mr. Thos. Walker attended court at Richmond today. Miss Juliet Gill is expected home this week from a protracted visit to Mrs. Dr. Elkin in Atlanta. John Kirby has gone to Anderson county, where he has been assigned as storekeeper and ganger under Collector Burnam. Walker Landrum has also accepted a similar position in Madison county. Mrs. D. M. Lackey has returned from a visit to Georgetown. A. T. Nunnally, of Stanford, was here Saturday. Mrs. Daniels, of Versailles, is visiting Mrs. D. M. Lackey. Mrs. Frisbie and son, Fred, have returned from Louisville.

—Sir Robert Ball, F. R. S., says that the sun will endure millions of years more can be stated with reasonable certainty. But though the term of the sun's energy is to be far prolonged into the indefinite future, its duration cannot be eternal. The facts known and proved go to show that it is possible to calculate with approximate correctness the times when the three of the immense planet shall be extinguished, when its furious action shall have ceased and when every vestige of life, animal and vegetable, shall have vanished from the earth. This may be true, and doubtless is, but it furnishes no occasion for alarm to this generation, or those that are to follow for a considerable space of time.

—A writer in the Texas Land News says he has tasted, drank and consumed beer in every city, town and hamlet in this broad land, but not until he blew the foam from a glass of the Lone Star beer did he realize what America was capable of in this direction. Most assuredly the wonderful experience of the writer would make him a competent judge of beer, but the probabilities are that when he reached San Antonio and discovered the Lone Star beer, he concluded that he had found the object of his search and determined to permanently locate and spend the remainder of his days in the enjoyment of his favorite beverage, shouting, "Long live King Gambinus and his favorite residence on the banks of the sparkling San Antonio!"

We sincerely appreciate these kind words from the editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal. We were grieved to learn while in Stanford Monday of the serious illness of Mrs. W. P. Walton. One cannot but admire the apparent cheerfulness with which Editor Walton pushes his work while his very soul is racked with suffering and distress. We beg to join with their thousands of friends in extending our sympathy and in hoping for Mrs. Walton's speedy restoration to health.

An old restaurant bill, printed in Richmond, in January, 1861, gives the following war-time prices in Confederate money: Soup, $1.50; chicken, $3.50; roast beef, $3; ham and eggs, $3; raw oysters, $2; coffee, $2; bread and butter, $1.50; a bottle of champagne, $50; a drink of rye whiskey, $2; a bottle of ale $12, and a cigar $2.

It is said that Claus Spreckles cleared $5,000,000 by the sale of his competing refinery to the sugar trust. A more important inquiry is, what will the people gain? They may rest assured that they will be compelled to pay that $5,000,000 and more; else the great trust would not have advanced the money.

The Chicago Herald says that good roads are of so much importance that the man who has a method to suggest would do well to stump his State, and if necessary to carry the matter into politics. What better platform could a candidate for governor desire than one which demanded better country roads?

Every one may not know that the Bank of England notes are made from new white linen cuttings—never from anything that has been worn. So carefully is the paper prepared that even the number of dips into the pulp made by each workman is registered on a dial by machinery.

In the kingdom of Poland there was formerly a law according to which any person found guilty of slander was compelled to walk on all fours through the streets of the town where he lived, accompanied by the beadle, as a sign that he was unworthy of the name of man.

—The republican convention in Alabama divided into two factions and sent two delegations to Minneapolis. Both are, however, instructed for Harrison.

DANVILLE.

—Messrs. Eugene and J. K. McGowan have returned from Martinsville, Ind., their rheumatism much benefited by the baths.

—Tuesday night Rev. Dr. Worrall will be installed at the 2d Presbyterian church as a professor in the Theological Seminary, which will close its present term Wednesday.

—Before Judge McFerran, last Saturday, Eugene Owens was tried on two charges of carrying concealed weapons and one of disturbing public worship and was acquitted on all but one of the first two. On this he was fined $25 and sent to the work-house 10 days.

—Judge McFerran has about cleared his docket of the misdemeanor cases transferred from the circuit court. Three cases only remain, two against Wm. Seltzman and one against Kate Lee for selling whisky, being set for next Saturday. Seltzman's defense, it is said, will be that he lived in Casey county at the time the red-goods were sold, if sold at all, and therefore the Boyle county courts have no jurisdiction.

—A game of base ball between the State College nine of Lexington, and the Centre College nine of Danville, Saturday last, resulted in a victory for the C. C. nine by a score of 8 to 6. The Lexington "fellers" came over in big style, with fine uniforms and a band of music, but the race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong, and we met the enemy and they are ours, etc., etc.

—Mr. Joseph W. Irvine, who lived about five miles out on the Lebanon pike, died Saturday evening, aged 50 years. The cause of death was Bright's disease. He leaves a widow and several children, all grown but two. The funeral services were held at Caldwell's meeting-house Monday and the interment at Danville cemetery at 3 p. m. the same day. Services by Revs. E. M. Green and Lapsley McKee.

—J. C. Huston was indicted during the February and March court for carrying a pistol concealed. The case, with other misdemeanors, was transferred to the Quarterly Court for trial and where it was disposed of, Judge McFerran finding the defendant guilty and fixing his punishment at $25 fine and 10 days in the work-house. Now Mr. Yerkes, the defendant's attorney, "the ups" and prays an appeal to the circuit court, which is granted, so the case lands again at the point from which it started.

—Kate Lee and Maude Harris, the colored women arrested and taken to Frankfort, last week, by Deputy U. S. Marshal McCarty, have returned. They say they were tried before a U. S. Commissioner and acquitted. Murphy, one of the detectives who helped get up the cases at first, last November, in the police court here, appeared at Frankfort as a witness against the women, but as they produced a paper which Murphy admitted signing, in which it was admitted that all his previous statements were false, the commissioner gave no weight to his testimony.

—Chris Stoll, a tailor, who lives in the 3d story of the old Central House, concluded Sunday evening that he would commit suicide. He had been drinking more or less and was discouraged over a scarcity of money, a big family and the fact that he had been garnished for a $2.05 butcher bill. He was on the roof of the house trying to jump, with his wife clinging to him screaming, when Messrs. P. Mannini and S. G. Harlan went to her assistance and brought the man down. Dr. Bogie, who attended him, thinks he is much to be pitied and does not doubt the genuineness of the attempt at self-destruction.

—A large number of young people, chaperoned by a number of older folks, went to Linnetta Spring, Saturday, to indulge in an "egg hunt." Near the end of the procession, leaving Danville, was a barouche in which were Mr. David Dunn and Misses Neville and Wilson, of Caldwell College. Down near where the steam pump, which forces the water from a spring to the D. & D. Asylum is located, the horses scared and went over the side of the pike, a wheel broke and the barouche upset. All were thrown out and more or less bruised. Misses Neville and Wilson were both severely cut about the head. Physicians who attended them say that their injuries, although painful, are not serious.

—The grand jury at Paris has indicted C. C. Moore for publishing two slanderous articles about the Christian church; W. S. Marshall, of Lexington, for printing the Blade with the articles in it; Craddock & Remington, of the Paris Kentuckian, for publishing a communication saying Moore was in the asylum; W. T. Ficklen, for giving Moore information about the church members and Wm. Remington for pulling Ficklen's nose for giving the information.

—At Burlington, N. J., a priest stopped his prayer and drove a member of his congregation from the church with a revolver. The member had incurred the priest's displeasure by allowing a protestant youth to court his daughter.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mr. R. H. Bronaugh and family are rejoicing over the advent of a new boy at their home, while Mr. W. A. Carson and wife have a nice little girl, born Saturday.

—The well at the depot is out of repair and the people in Crab Orchard can hardly live; but it will only be a few days until water will flow freely and all can be filled.

—Sunday being May day, everybody was out in their new suits and as Rev. Amos Stout preached at the Baptist church, they all had an opportunity to display their lovely bonnets and Prince Albert coats.

—The Keeley Institute opened Monday. Part of the physicians came Saturday, the rest Monday, and they expect to soon have many patients. They cure drunkenness, the opium habit and also chewing and smoking tobacco. Send on the cigarette dude at once; he can be cured for $5.

—Miss Maggie Buchanan came home Saturday, accompanied by Miss Jean Bruce Haldeman, who will visit her grand-parents. Mrs. M. A. Fish has had a severe attack of the grip. Miss Kate Napier, of Maywood, is visiting her brother at this place. Mr. W. T. Mattingly spent Sunday in Louisville. Mr. W. A. Brooks spent Sunday at home to complete the May-day display of cuts ways. Will is always ready to help his naive home in making a display.

—Fully 60 farmers accepted the invitation to take some of the seed corn sent by Hon. D. B. Elmhurst to this office for distribution and all promised to report results.

—The hog market is on a down grade, with prospects not good by any means. Hardin & Beauchamp shipped 160 head this week and sold them at 4.30.—Lexington Enterprise.

—Corn planting is the order of the day now and the work is being pushed while the sun shines so pleasantly. A few farmers have finished and all ought to be the last of the week.

—D. J. Curry & Rue bought 25 head of mules at an average of $100. They also bought this week from Danville parties, seven head of 2-year-old mules at $22.50.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Milton Young has 80 foals and 65 more due and no losses so far. His colts generally average $1,000 per head at public auction, or an income of $100,000 on the whole.—Lexington Gazette.

—Wm. Moreland bought of D. G. Elliott 60 200-pound hogs at 3½c; of Hunn & Blain 140 of same at same price; of Emmett McCormack 14 butcher cattle at 3c and of Will Cloyd 5 of same at same price.

—The Louisville Critic says that out of the large number of entries, but eight horses will start in the Derby to be run at Louisville to-morrow week, Bashford, Azra, Phil Dwyer, Low Weir, The Hero, Gorman, Farady and Irish Chief. The Critic thinks that either Phil Dwyer or Low Weir will win.

—William Stigall, of this county, has sold to R. Duvall, Richmond, Mo., the fine 4-year-old jack, "John Morgan," for $1,200. George Cogar has bought during the last two months about 1,250,000 pounds of hemp at from $3.75 to $4.30 per 112 pounds. He has been shipping it to the East.—Advocate.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—Mr. Edmiston offered a bill to extend the time allowed for enforcing a lien for building materials from 60 days to six months.

—It is estimated by a Frankfort calculator that of the $125,000 expended on the General Assembly so far but $20,000 has gone to pay for needed legislation.

—The resolution to cut circuit judges' salaries to $2,400 a year was rejected in the Senate, but that would be big pay for a number of the judges whom we could name.

—Like sensible men, Hons. D. B. Edmiston and Lewis Y. Leavell voted to tax private corporations, like individuals or firms. Hayseed Hay, of Boyle, wants them to be discriminated against.

—The Carroll amendment to the revenue and taxation bill, allowing persons to deduct their debts from their credits in listing their property for taxation, was rejected by the House 60 to 20.

—The Carroll amendment to the revenue and taxation bill provides that private corporations shall be taxed as individuals or limited firms was rejected 47 to 29. The hayseeds are dead "agin" corporations.

—Only 68 of the 100 members of the Frankfort House were absent from roll-call this morning. Now don't shoot the 32 who were present—they were, doubtless, all sick or broke and couldn't get away.—Louisville Times.

—In the State Senate Judge Lindsay refused to vote for a bill under discussion on the ground that it is about the same as is now found in the statute books. He read the Legislature a rasping lecture on its waste of time.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Two Cincinnati girls married Chinamen last week.

—Miss Mary, daughter of Judge W. S. Fryor, was married Saturday to Mr. A. O. Sanford, of Tallapoosa, Ga.

—Miss Lilly, third daughter of Editor Henry T. Duncan, of the Lexington Press, was married Thursday night to George Otis Draper, of Massachusetts. Mrs. Mattie, widow of Joe Kimbrough, was married the same night to B. F. Coughlin.

—Wm. C. Muse, late night news editor of the Courier-Journal, died at the residence of his father in Jackson, Tenn., aged 31.

—Mrs. Dr. S. C. Perkins, of Bee Lick, died yesterday of consumption, after an illness of several months. She was Miss Mollie Albright and formerly lived at Broadhead. Mrs. Perkins leaves besides her husband a 5-year-old son.

—Irvine I. Green, father of Francis Marion Green, of the Richmond Register, died last week, aged 80. It is stated that Mr. Green had been married 50 years and that his is the first death to occur in his family in that time. That he was a good man and a model father is evidenced in the fact that he raised such worthy sons to rise up and call him blessed.

—Reports received from all over the State show that the watermelon acreage in Georgia this year is about 20,000. The vines are in fine condition and the crop will probably be an early and good one. At the usual acreage the total production will be about 9,000 car loads.

—The State weather service reports a great improvement in a crop, though wheat, in places, has not fully recovered from the damaging effects of the heavy rains early in last month. Corn-planting is under full headway and with favorable weather conditions the crop will all be in the ground within the next week. Tobacco plants are reported to be very plentiful, but are small for the season.

A GEORGIA ITEM.—The Widow Jones, who has buried five husbands, has purchased a lot near the cemetery, where she will soon erect a neat cottage. She is an enterprising woman.

There is much truth in the remark of one who observed, "The worst thing about the grip is that you are sick with it so long after you get well."

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

In their last National platform the republicans promised one cent postage, along with other fallacious things. Those who were foolish enough to put confidence in it are now clamoring for the fulfillment, but the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says the cry is unreasonable—that it would cause too great a deficiency, &c. The reduction of postage at this time, one hundred per cent, is impracticable and therefore unreasonable, but the cry is not. When a great and moral party makes a promise for vote-catching purposes the people have a right to cry for its fulfillment and curse the makers when it is not done. The republican party is the party of pretexts and keeps the word of promise to the ear to break it to the hope.

Gov. Flower has signed the reappointment bill and New York will hereafter be fairly represented in the Legislature and in Congress. By the most shameful of gerrymanders, New York, which is a democratic State, sometimes by a majority of 192,000, has had a republican Legislature for years and of a consequence two republican Senators, until the people could stand it no longer and corrected the injustice themselves by electing a democratic Legislature in spite of the gerrymander and then choosing David Bennett Hill senator. Frank Hiseock will go in 1893 also to make room for a democrat.

Brer. Fox, of the Danville Democrat, says he has not changed his opinion as to the availability of Mr. Cleveland. He is as much convinced as ever that he is not the proper man to nominate, though he fears he will be. Brer. Fox may not have changed his opinions, but he has been mighty chummy in expressing them of late and acknowledges he would not do so now except for the frequent public and private twittings that he has undergone. We are sorry we added to the weight of the brother's woe. Let him lay low and we will not disturb him again.

The republicans in Ohio endorsed Harrison, but did not instruct for him. The old fight between Sherman and Foraker was renewed and the result was a dog-fall in the selection of delegates to Minneapolis. Foraker and his man Bushnell being named and Sherman's men, Gov. McKinley and W. M. Hahn. The platform opposes free silver coinage in the most direct terms, which taken in connection with the action of the Colorado republicans shows that there is but little unity in the party on that question.

Hugh McMillan, the handsome and dashing ex-postmaster at Paducah, has been sentenced to a year in the penitentiary for stealing the money from a registered letter. He has appealed and will live in the Louisville jail until it is decided. He belongs to a good family, but made the mistake of joining the republican party and attempting to imitate some of its shining lights; but he stole too little and now a felon's cell and a felon's stripes await him.

Congressman Bland and Senator Pugh, a couple of cranks on the silver question, profess to believe that the failure of the bill for free coinage will break the Solid South, which of course is the merest bosh. The silver business will cut about as much figure in Kentucky as in any of the other Southern States, and no man will say it will be perceptible here.

If Mr. Harrison is nominated and elected, and that "if" is a very long, crooked letter, the question arises will he retain the "cheap clodgings" man, who raised the $400,000 corruption fund in 1888, at the head of the post-office department, or will he again put the office up to the highest bidder? If the latter, will Wanamaker another bid?

It is hoped that if the democrats "decide to come West" for a presidential candidate they will not even think of John M. Palmer. He is a back number and is too old to be considered. Should a Western man be named, it seems that Gov. Boies is the most available. At any rate, he is the only man who is at all likely to carry his own State.

The Kentucky G. A. R., which met at Lebanon last week, made the usual howl for more pensions, which seems to be the proper caper since the concern was organized for that purpose. Gen. E. H. Hobson beat Collector Scott two to one for department commander, T. E. Livezey was re-elected vice-commander, and so on.

The Louisville Commercial speaks of this paper as the STANDARD JOURNAL, a decided compliment from a worthy source. Now is the time to subscribe.

After hobnobbing and banqueting with Senators and Congressmen who oppose Mr. Cleveland's nomination, because of his rugged honesty and official integrity, Mr. Watterson blows his haze again and the notes fall in double leads in yesterday's Courier-Journal to the effect that Cleveland, although the admitted choice of an overwhelming majority of democrats all over the country, must not be nominated because the machine of New York is against it. In other words, we are to throw overboard the only man who can win other States into the democratic column simply because Tammany has willed otherwise. Let Mr. Watterson come home; Washington "society" doesn't agree with him. It mixes 'em too much.

The most elaborate preparations are being made to entertain the editors by the city of Lexington and the occasion promises to even eclipse the hitherto unbeaten record of Owensboro. The meeting begins on the 10th and will last three days, each hour of which is to be filled in with some greater enjoyment than the one before. It is not likely that we will be able to attend, but if we are absent in body we shall be present in spirit wishing the boys a good time and congratulating the blue grass city on the complete success of her big undertaking.

Young H. H. Smith, of Hardin, better known as the D. F. politician with an ambition that far o'er leaps itself, has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the 4th district and proposes to the present incumbent, Montgomery, to leave it to Hardin county which shall make the race. This is a rather cheeky proposition, which Montgomery will not of course accept, but whether he does or not, or which of the two is elected, is not of great importance. One is about as good as the other and the other is about as bad as the other. Neither is a fit successor to the Hon. J. Proctor Knott.

The G. A. R. at Lebanon demanded that every soldier be pensioned who is entitled to be. Everybody will say amen to that, but the trouble is there are so many living off the government that are not entitled to be clothed and fed in that way, men who never knew the smell of gunpowder and never did a day's service in their lives. Nobody objects to liberal pensioning of deserving men, but it goes against the grain of the taxpayer to have to work for men who were as worthless in war as they are in peace.

The peach growers' bill before the Legislature in New Jersey provides that a peach basket shall measure 12 1/2 inches at the top and be of a capacity to hold just half a bushel of fruit; each basket to be stamped "Standard N. J." It is hoped that an amendment will be adopted prohibiting the bottom from taking up more than half the space inside the basket.

The people's party, which was going to play such havoc in Louisiana, east less than 8,000 votes, while the democrats came up smiling with 126,000. The republican vote was scarcely 40,000. The South is solid and will continue to be as long as the negro question remains unsettled.

The editor of the London Echo should not bother his massive mind with the abstruse questions of tariff. The man who can not be taught that the tariff is a tax, with so many object lessons presented daily, is not likely to tumble to argument no matter how plainly and comprehensively made.

If our World's Fair lady commissioners are as pretty as the Courier-Journal's pictures make them, they are as worthy representatives of Kentucky beauty as they are of her splendid womanhood.

We tender our sympathy to Bro. Havens and Casewy, of Mt. Sterling, in their loss of a valuable printing office by fire.

—The Register says the county court made the following agreement with Jailor Wagers: Said Wagers may work such county prisoners as are sentenced to labor, free of charge, on condition that he clothe said prisoners comfortably, carry all paupers having permits to the poorhouse and have graves dug and handland see to the burial of all paupers in the city limits.

—The introduction of a resolution endorsing Harrison's administration caused an uproar in the Colorado republican convention and the resolution was defeated by a vote of 623 to 2. The platform demands the free and unlimited coinage of silver and directs the delegates to oppose the nomination of any man for president who does not favor unlimited silver coinage.

—Shepard Bushy was hanged at Fort Smith for the murder of a deputy U. S. marshal. He talked for a half hour on the scaffold, making out a case of self-defense. The old hangman, Maledon, who has hanged his four-score men from the same beam, did not execute Bushy on account of an old friendship between them. Half a dozen women were witnesses of the execution.

FOUND.

On last Friday an old man and little boy were seen plodding this way over the road from New York to this place. Noticeable about them was the old man carrying a very large sack. When asked by a passer-by what that big sack was for, he would only look and smile; never an answer would he give. The little boy was inclined to tell, but a look from the old gent soon stopped him.

Curiosity overcame one of the many people passing along, and following him, they noticed he went to the

Louisville Store,

Dropped his sack on the floor and asked for a chair, all the while holding tightly in his hand a paper, which he would continually look at and smile. One of the salesmen asked him what he wished. His reply was: "Mister, I want all this," at the same time showing one of our

The second lot contains about 1/2 acre and adjoins the lot of Thomas Hall on the south-east, Wm. Chappell on the east and James and W. E. Huston on the north and west and an alley on the south. FOR RENT.—House and lot on upper Main. Has 8 rooms, good well and 12-ter. B. G. Gover.

A. T. Martin, the Maywood cheap man, is selling lots of goods and deserves it, as he is selling lower than anybody in this section.

It is very probable that Hustonville will have a fair this year. A good deal of the stock has been taken, but the date has not yet been decided on.

SINE & MENEFEE will commence in a few days the erection of two cottages on the lot on Lower Main street they recently bought of Mr. J. M. McRoberts, Sr.

PETE HAMPTON is so enthusiastic over the water works and electric lights that he secured the pen that signed the contract and will preserve it as a valuable reminder of the dawn of a new era in Stanford.

The Altamont and Manchester railroad, projected by Col. Cassius Crooke, is being graded and at least 10 miles will be in operation by November. It heads northeast through Clay, Perry, Breathitt, etc., and goes through the finest coal fields in Kentucky.

An evangelistic trump, who gave his name as the "Rev. Paul Bagley," held forth on the streets here Friday for an hour or two, but failed to get even the listeners to listen to him, consequently collections were scarce and the old man moved on to more inviting fields.

The democratic county committee has been called by Chairman J. B. Paxton to meet here next Saturday to decide on the manner of selecting delegates to the State convention. A mass meeting at the court-house on the 14th seems to be the idea of most of the committee.

The City Council, which has heretofore met anywhere it could, has rented the rooms in the rear of Old Fellows Hall, a very pleasant and convenient place. It has also had some neat stationery printed and proposes in the future to conduct the office with the dignity and decorum that befits the growing town.

The Ladies' Exchange again met with most gratifying success, Saturday, and a nice little sum was realized. It will be open again next Saturday, beginning at 11 A. M. The ladies subscribed $100 towards a paragon for the Christian church and the "exchange" was adopted as a means to raise it. Let everybody give them aid and encouragement.

The Q. & C. will sell round-trip tickets to Atlanta on the 3, 4, 5 and 6 on account of the General Baptist Association at one fare for the round-trip. Traveling Passenger Agent J. S. Leith was here Saturday conferring with the Baptists and setting forth the advantages of his road over all competitors. He is a very fine representative of a very fine road.

While testing down his house Mr. E. T. Pence met with an accident that came very near costing him his life. He was at work in the second story when all at once the wall gave way and the flooring went down with Mr. Pence, badly bruising both of his arms and cutting an ugly gash in his forehead. His son, who was assisting him, made a narrow escape.

Mr. Pence was tearing his house down preparatory to putting up a new one on the same site.

The Ladies of Trinity Church, Episcopal, of Danville, will give an entertainment at Walton's Opera House on the evening of the 13th, for the benefit of the rectory fund. The church has recently purchased a home for Rev. W. Y. Sheppard and the ladies are helping to pay for it. They gave the same entertainment in Danville to a full house and it was greatly enjoyed. Admission 50 cents; children under 12, half price. Tickets on sale at W. B. McRoberts' drug store.

The following Knights and their ladies attended the banquet of the Ryan Commandery at Danville and report a grand time: Mayor D. W. Vandever and Misses Mattie and Nannie Vandever, S. M. Owens and wife, Dr. L. B. Cook and wife, James Milburn and wife, Sherman Napper and wife, W. K. Holly and wife, R. L. Martin and wife, M. F. Hulet and Miss Lizzie Davison, A. R. Penny, G. B. Samuels, John W. Carrier, W. R. McPherson and Fred St. John. Over 100 sat down to the table, which did the regulation "groaning" under its load of good things. The Commandery conferred the distinguished honor on our townsman, Mr. A. R. Penny, of electing him Eminent Commander, which was both a surprise to him and a gratification to his friends.

CABINET photographs at Earp's at $1.00 per dozen up till May 15.

BORN, to the wife of Mr. James Gastineau, who lives on the Danville pike, a 12-pound boy.

SEE Rice Renge, my agent in Garrard, before you sell your wool. He will pay more than anybody for it. A. T. Nunnally.

LOGAN COFFEY, colored, was fined $10 by Judge Carson Saturday for whipping his wife. He will work out the fine on the rock pile.

THE weather for the past week is a forcible reminder of that which Solomon enjoyed when he sang his wonderful Song. See 2d chapter 12th verse.

I WILL buy all the wool, feathers and bacon sides that I can get in exchange for dry good, boots, shoes and clothing at the highest market price. John S. Hughes.

WOOL.—100,000 pounds wanted and at highest cash market price. Will have agents at Paint Lick, Lancaster, McKinney and Hustonville. See them before you sell. A. T. Nunnally.

MR. I. M. Bruce has been appointed agent for the Standard Oil Co. here. By the way, this place has been made the distributing point for this section. Another enterprise Stanford is proud of.

HOUSE PAINTING AND DECORATING.—Jesse C. Ramsey takes contracts for all kinds of painting and guarantees satisfaction. Prices to suit the times. Orders left at A. R. Penny's will receive prompt attention.

THE Louisville Times ought to get after the baggage-masters. They take the bundle of papers for this place by entirely too often. The last time was Saturday night, and the Times was not read till Sunday's Courier-Journal was due.

THE INTERIOR JOURNALS have joined the Blue Grass League. Les Wilson will play with them again and Manager Rice is corresponding with Boone, who played with the Louisvilles last year, and will likely engage him.

WE desire to say to our customers whose accounts are past due that while we have been very lenient in the past, the time has now come when we must have our money. Prompt payments will save costs. Sine & Menefee.

BREASTSOLD a slight reduction in the price paid for digging coal the miners at the various mines in Laurel went on a strike Saturday. It is thought that the strike will last a good while, as both sides are determined to make no concessions.

MAD DOGS have been playing havoc in the West End. Mr. C. T. Griggs and a colored man named Jim Green, both of Hustonville, were bitten by them and a number of sheep and hogs have also been bitten. The work of exterminating them began Saturday and during the day four mad dogs were killed.

The following young people formed a leap year fishing party, yesterday, and spent the day near Dundarra's mill: Miss Clara Lackey, W. N. Craig; Miss Ophelia Lackey, Dr. J. M. Craig; Miss Miss Georgie Wray, Carroll Bailey; Miss Nettie Wray, Dr. A. S. Price; Miss Bessie Reid, Frank McKinney; Miss Annie Alcorn, J. G. Denny; Miss Mary Alcorn, Gabe Lackey; Miss Sue Baughman, Warren Hocker. They were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lynn.

THE water works and electric lights contract has been signed and everything now points to an early completion of both enterprises. Mr. B. J. C. Howe, who seems the fine business man that he is recommended to be, tells us he expects to go to work at once and by the last of July have everything in running order, though the contract gives him six months to finish the job. He will build a reservoir at the spring which will hold a million of gallons or more and use the direct pressure system now used in all the large cities. The council has agreed to extend a street out to the works and the railroad company will put in a switch just beyond the end of the trestle. There is said to be many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, but it would take more than a Doubting Thomas to believe that the undertaking will fall through this time. We are satisfied that it will not and that with its opening up all interests in Stanford will revive. There is one thing certain, it settles the question of the retention of the railroad shops at Rowland and that of itself is sufficient to put laurel wreaths around the brows of the council that has worked the matter to a successful issue. All honor to them and congratulations all around!

Mr. Howe has made the first payment for the spring and the couple of acres of land and has organized a stock company with an authorized capital of $100,000, to be known as the Stanford Water, Light & Ice Company, with the following incorporators: B. J. C. Howe, A. R. Penny, J. N. Menefee, J. B. Foster, J. W. Hayden and W. G. Welch. It is estimated that it will cost $45,000 to $50,000 to get the three plants in operation. The Howe Pump & Machine Co. retain all the stock but $10,000 and that amount will be placed with local investors, the company guaranteeing 7 per cent. interest. Mr. J. W. Hayden, the secretary and treasurer, is authorized to solicit subscriptions.

STANFORD will soon be ahead of all her sister towns, with water works, electric lights, ice factory and street cars. But we won't be proud tho' with all of them. Even a Lancaster man will be treated with our accustomed civility.

THE report comes from Somerset that Tom Scott shipped up behind Editor Barker and knocked him down with a policeman's baton because he published that the grand jury had indicted him for some of his numerous offenses. We hardly think Mr. Scott could have been guilty of so cowardly an act, but if he is the law should put him where he won't be able to assault anybody else soon.

HENRY DAUGHERTY, a young man employed in Louis Ramsey's paint shop at Lexington, was fatally burned by the explosion of a pot of varnish, which he was heating. He was from McKinney. The Press says his entire body was dreadfully burned. His hair was charred and his face was a horrible sight to look upon. His eyebrows were entirely burned off and the skin had fallen away, exposing the naked muscles of his face. His left leg was "burned to the bone," while all the other parts of the body were blistered and exposed to the open air, his clothes being burned off.

NOT ADVISABLE.—Mr. A. A. McKinney has shown us a letter from the post-office department saying that the star route proposed and petitioned for between here and Hustonville via McKinney is not advisable and therefore refused. The letter states that mail matter can go from here to those points in a day by railroad, but can and doing are different things. Unless the train on C. S. is late, the statement of the department is untrue. The only train that carries local mail on that road is due to leave Junction City for the South before the north-bound train on this road arrives.

—John P. Haley's residence at Somerset was burned; loss $2,500, with no insurance.

—Green Lewis got a judgment against the city of Somerset for $50 for injuries received on a bad plank walk.

—A post office has been established at Jay, Russell county, and Charles a Hammonds appointed post-master.

—The threatened labor troubles in the Old World promised for May day didn't occur and there was no serious disturbance in this country.

—Mr. J. L. Logan, son of Mr. James B. Logan, formerly of this county, lost his residence in Jossamine by fire. Loss $4,000; insurance $2,500.

—Bessie Guile, a 16-year-old Pulaski girl, ran off to Lexington and entered a house of prostitution, but was rescued by an officer and returned to her parents.

—Mr. Sterling was damaged by fire to the extent of $50,000 Sunday. Nine houses were completely destroyed, among them being the Sentinel-Democrat office and the post-office. About one-half the loss is covered by insurance.

—The Princess Opera house and six stores, comprising an entire block at Winnepeg, Man., were burned to the ground and nothing whatever of the contents saved. Sixteen or 18 houses in all were destroyed and the loss will be very heavy with comparatively little insurance.
